Breast cancer: From Screening to Breast conservation
Organized by the Lebanese Society of Radiology
under the auspices of the Ministry of Public Health

Venue
Lebanese Order of Physicians, Beit El Tabib, Tahwita – Beirut – Lebanon
Saturday 24 September 2016
8:30 am to 12:30

Registration: 8:30 – 9:00
Presidents: Dr. Mahmoud Berjaoui, Dr. Imad Al Ghossein

Part 1: 9:00 – 10:30
Moderators: Mrs. Samar El-Ahmadieh, Mr. Paul Makdessi, Mrs. Rania Nassar

9:00 – 9:15: National Anthem / opening word
9:15 – 9:30: The discrepancies in screening protocols. What to say to the patient? (Dr. Reine Fahed, Dr. Rana Al Rouhbane, Pr. Michel Ghossain)
9:30 – 10:00: ACR BI-RADS (Pr. Michel Ghossain)
- The Philosophy of BI-RADS
- BI-RADS classification (Differences between versions 4 and 5)
- Changes in 2016 questionnaire, tips for a good classification and importance of palpation
10:00 – 10:30: The evolution of mammographic techniques from analogue to tomosynthesis. At what level is your center? (Dr. Reine Fahed)

Coffee Break: 10:30 – 11:00

Part 2: 11:00 – 12:30
Moderators: Mrs. May Makhoul, Mrs. Mirna Soueidi, Mrs. Rita Younane
11:00 – 11:30: Benign calcifications on mammography according to the BI-RADS classification (Pr. Michel Ghossain)
11:30 – 12:00: The indications for ultrasound and MRI with an overview on biopsy techniques (Dr. Rana Al Rouhbane)
12:00 – 12:30: The evolution of breast surgery: from radical mastectomy to Oncoplasty (Associated Pr. David Atallah)